The 2007 Annual Register: World Events

Key events and developments from 2006

First edited in 1758 by Edmund Burke

Editor: D.S. Lewis Deputy Editor: Wendy Slater

“This classic work presents... a concise, reliable survey of world events. Written by scholars and other experts, chapters highlight the immediate and distant past. Entry descriptions vary from brief paragraphs of vital statistics... to several pages covering major events of broad significance.
Recommended.” – Choice: Current Reviews for Academic Libraries, 3/07

For this new edition, over 85 distinguished specialists analyze major developments for every country in the world – and deliver a timely guide to trends and events that are shaping today's world.

Specially written for the business person, journalist, researcher, or anyone who has a serious question about international affairs, The 2007 Annual Register helps the reader find:

- “Quick reference” data about 209 countries, featuring expanded coverage of Brazil, China, India, Japan, the Middle East, and the United States.
- Overviews of political, economic, and cultural events from 2006.
- Major trends in: international economy; scientific and industrial research; the law, religion, and the arts.
- The texts of the year's key documents, including: trends in global terrorism; summary of the Iraq Study Group report; routes of secret detentions and unlawful transfers of terrorist suspects; climate change scenario; international comparison of population, GDP, and growth; and UN political and peace-keeping missions.

In its country-by-country coverage, the new edition highlights the following events:

- Israel-Hezbollah conflict in Lebanon
- Attack on Shiite shrine in Iraq and subsequent sectarian violence
- Democratic victory in US mid-term elections
- Recommendations of US bipartisan Iraq Study Group
- Hamas victory in Palestinian legislative elections
- Israeli intervention in Gaza after capture of soldier by Hamas militants
- North Korean missile and nuclear tests
- Successful enrichment of uranium by Iran
- India-US nuclear agreement
- Surge in Taliban attacks in Afghanistan
- Foiling of airline suicide bomb plot in UK
- Bloodless military coup in Thailand
- Peace agreement with Maoist rebels in Nepal

- Election defeat for governments in Canada, Italy, Sweden, and Ukraine
- Collapse of Sri Lankan government cease-fire with Tamil Tigers
- Military coup in Fiji
- Anti-government rioting in Hungary
- Presidential elections in Brazil, Chile, DRC, and Mexico
- International Muslim protests against Danish cartoons of the Prophet Mohammed
- Collapse of Doha round of WTO negotiations
- Russia-EU energy dispute
- Islamists' militia victory in Somalia; Ethiopian intervention
- Criticism of European states' involvement in US “extraordinary rendition” programme
- Faltering of Turkey's EU-accession negotiations
- Chinese pursuit of Africa's raw materials to fuel economic growth
- Execution of Saddam Hussein
- Deaths of General Pinochet and Slobodan Milosevic
- Concern over impending climate change
